The Monmouth Review says of the afternoon game between the Rock Islands and Monmouths at the latter city on memorial day: Although the afternoon was raw and chilly about 500 people went to the ball park to see the second game between the Rock Islands and the Athletics. The crowd wanted to see a close game and a good game of ball, but when they saw that the Rock Islands didn't know the first principles of the game the crowd demanded a shut out and got it. Thompson and Dallas were in the points for the home team, and Wehrend and Zeis for the visitors. Not a battery error was made by the home team, and Thompson begun his work with his new club by striking out a dozen men, and holding the visitors down to three singles and a double, no two of which were made in the same inning. Not a ball got through the stone wall infield and no flies escaped the alert outfielders. Tuggs pulled in two lovely balls that he had to work for. Poole was the only man in the home team who made an error, and his was an excusable one. He played in center field, although suffering with a sprained ankle.

and when a ball came to him on the first bounce he failed to get it, and a man advanced to second base.

Baker, the Rock Islands first baseman, in search of them. He said they were elopers. played a miserable game. He let five men to first on errors, three of them in one inning. The battery did good work, although the boys found time to make eleven base hits.

Zeis made a home run vesterd av morning, the first that has been made on the grounds. It was properly a two-base hit, but the ball was lost in the high grass near the fence, and he made the Royalty on the Rall. Among the curiosities of Queen Victoria's railway journeys are the time tables supplied to her majesty, these being printed in violet ink, on hand made paper with gilt edges. They contain the exact times of the stoppages at all points, and give other information of interest. The Prince of Wales has, perhaps, the finest railway coach in Europe. It contains seven rooms, a study with a library, a couple of bedrooms, a dressing room and a bathroom. The bedroom is most luxuriously furnished in old gold silk, being lighted by electricity, and the paneling is beautifully painted. - Detroit Free Press.

Gentlemen's Dress Fifty Years Ago. Fifty-six years ago American gentlemer vore blue broadcloth coats with high rolling collars, short -waists, gilt buttons and long tails, with skirts cut away over the hips Their waistcoats were very short, and their pantaloons-there were no "pants" or trousers in those days-were very long and tight. Yellow nankeen was the material of the former, drab or buff mole skin of the latter. It was a perpetual mystery how a man got into his pantaloons, and once in how he got out. They came down to the very bottom of his heel and buttoned beneath his instep, giving him an uncomfortable strapped up appearance. His collar was of the big "side board" type and his cravat was either an enormous stock of black satin or a couple of yards of white lawn wrapped in ample folds about his throat. THE MANAGEMENT OF DOGS.

Editor American Sportsman:

I was much pleased and greatly interested in the article on the dog and their management that appeared in the Sportsman from the pen of Mr. Hugh Dalziel. To advance the growth and beautify the coat, he advises the use of cocoanut oil. Right. But do your many readers and lovers of the dog know that there is within their reach a more simple and easier obtained article and at far less expense, that answers the same purpose of the oil. This is nothing more nor less than Ivory Soap manufactured by Procter & Gamble, of Cincinnati. I have used it for many years and find it for all practical purposes far superior to anything I have ever used in my kennel. For washing setters I have never found its equal. Its healing properties are wonderful, and for sores and eruptions of any kind invaluable. It leaves the skin soft and clear, furnishes life to the coat, produces a beautiful growth of feather and leaves it smooth and glossy and free from harshness. I use it with lukewarm rain water, which I find is the best. This forms a rich, oily lather, and helps loosen all stubborn scales and blotches of the skin. To those putting dogs in condition for show purposes it is first-class, and does away with the use of oils, eggs, etc. I have no purpose in advising the use of the soap only for the good of the dog. I have no interest, directly or indirectly, have never met, nor do I know any of the manufacturers. But I must give them credit for giving us the best soap for kennel purposes I have ever used. JOHN BOLUS,

Kilbuck Kennels, Wooster, Ohio.

A WORD OF WARNING.

There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the 'Ivory';" they ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it. Copyright 1886, by Procter & Gamble,
